“But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him
was moved with compassion at the sight.

He approached the victim,
poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them.
Then he lifted him up on his own animal,
took him to an inn, and cared for him.”

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK ...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

After a careful search and a thorough interview process by our search committee, I am pleased to announce that Mr. William DiBacco will be the new Principal of our school. Mr. DiBacco had been a teacher in our school and has served as assistant principal of St. Charles Borromeo, principal of St. Francis of Assisi, principal of Our Lady of Peace, and principal of the merged Archbishop James P. Lyke School at Our Lady of Peace Campus. I know that Mr. DiBacco will bring his experience and his love for our school to his position. Let us remember him, our faculty, staff and students in our prayers during this time of transition.

As you know, next weekend is our Annual Parish Festival! Please be sure to get your raffle tickets turned in and come up to the parish to enjoy some wonderful food and recreation. There is something here for everyone. It is a wonderful way to meet up with old friends and to meet other members of our parish, while supporting the mission of the church at the same time. I look forward to seeing you there. Let's pray for good weather!

Finally, I would like to invite you to a special Solemn High Mass being offered in the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite next Saturday at 12:00 noon in the Church. As you know, this is the Form of Mass that has existed for centuries within the Church and has strengthened the lives of so many saints.

May God's blessings be yours this week,

Father Ireland

P.S. From Fr. Ireland

Parking for Mass will be somewhat difficult next weekend. Please consider the parking lot at the Post Office, the lot behind McDonald's or at University Suburban. Perhaps you might consider picking up a neighbor and coming to church together. For those who live close and are able, perhaps a family walk to church would be a nice thing to consider. We ask your cooperation in leaving the spaces close to the rectory and around the Church open for those with physical limitations. Thank you. We hope to see you all at the Festival.

...from the voices of the children

The children have shared these "Good Deeds for God." They are written exactly as the children presented them. We regret that space does not permit us to record all of the "deeds" the children shared this week.

- I let mom sleep in.
- I helped with the laundry
- I was nice and kind at my friends house.
- I watched a TV show with my cousins even though I didn't want to.

Thank you, children, for sharing these with us.

FROM THE WOMEN'S GUILD ...*~ Calling All Bakers ~

This year's Festival will feature a new booth: "The Sweet Treat Café", which will feature coffee, tea and sweet treats served by our ladies from the Women's Guild. To make this booth as profitable as possible, we are asking for donations of cookies, brownies, bar cookies, cupcakes, muffins or other finger pastries that can easily be stored and handled. Please call Bea Krajnak at 216.382.6728 and let her know which day(s) you would be willing to provide your homemade "sweet treat."

FAMILY PERSPECTIVE ...

Today's readings challenge us to think about who our neighbor is. This includes the lonely person next door and the elderly widow down the street. But it also includes the demanding child, the rebellious teenager, the withdrawn spouse or the difficult in-law. Let's include those with whom we live and are related as "neighbors." Treat them with the "Gospel Good Neighbor Policy" of unconditional love, forgiveness and compassion and watch the results!

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION ...

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

One of the classic images in a catalogue of stained glass art is that of the good Samaritan. Along with the prodigal son, and Jesus blessing the children, the good Samaritan is one of the most commonly reproduced artistic scenes. Within 125 years of the first printed English Bibles the term "good Samaritan" came to have the figurative sense referring to anyone who helped a stranger in distress. Interestingly, the biblical text never uses the word "good" to describe the Samaritan. He is referred to as "neighbor" to the man who fell victim to robbers. Yet if someone refers to a person as a good Samaritan, we know instantly what is meant.

As we've all heard before, Samaritans were considered outcasts by Jews at the time of Jesus. Because they worshipped on Mt. Gerizim rather than in Jerusalem there were tensions between Jews and Samaritans that even escalated to violence that had to be quelled by the Roman occupiers. So it was a very pretty picture when the lawyer who questioned Jesus finds himself having to admit that it was the Samaritan who treated the robbers' victim with mercy.

What is our own understanding of who is our neighbor in the present day? The parable is such an enduring tale that its meaning has slipped into our common language. But that has happened at the expense of the story's punch line, and it is one that packs a real punch! Who are the outcasts or the despised in our day? What class of people have we found it difficult to accept? Or who might we find it easy to denigrate? The homeless? Immigrants? Muslims? Someone else? What if they were the Samaritan? Would we love the story as much if Jesus asked us today, "Which of these, in your opinion, was neighbor?" How would we answer?

JULY 16 ...FEAST DAY OF
 OUR LADY OF MT. CARMEL

Devotion to Our Lady of Mount Carmel is worldwide, and most Catholics are familiar with the Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, also known as the Brown Scapular. Mary appeared to Saint Simon Stock on July 16, 1251, and gave him the scapular with the following words, which are preserved in a fourteenth century narrative: "This will be for you and for all Carmelites the privilege, that he who dies in this will not suffer eternal fire."

The feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel was instituted for the Carmelites in 1332, and extended to the whole Church by Benedict XIII in 1726.

THE FEST ... AUGUST 8, 2010

The FEST is a free, one day Catholic family festival. It features live music, games and activities, and much more! The day ends with an incredible Mass and an awesome fireworks display. It's an opportunity to come together as a people of faith, celebrating the wonderful things God has done in our lives and in our world.

Through the generous support of our sponsors, the FEST is FREE to all who attend. Please consider supporting the FEST by buying a FEST Raffle Ticket or making a donation. Watch future bulletins for more information and a timeline of events.

MASS INTENTIONS NEEDED ...

We still have many Masses open for the months of July and August. The last half of this year has been filling in quite nicely, but it is the next couple of months that have many Masses without intentions. Please consider having one or more Masses offered for your deceased (or living) loved ones, family or friends, for our country, for our military men and women who each day place themselves in harm's way for our freedom.

As has been announced previously, the Mass schedule will remain unchanged from now until September 4, at which time the Saturday vigil Mass time will change from 5 p.m. to 4 p.m.

SCHOOL NEWS

Greetings to all Sacred Heart of Jesus families,

My name is William DiBacco and I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself as the new principal for the 2010-2011 school year. I am not a stranger to this building, nor to this community. I grew up in South Euclid and graduated from Saint Gregory the Great School in 1969. I also taught here for fifteen years from 1983 to 1998, and I am looking forward to once again being involved in the education of the students here at Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish.

I am a graduate of Charles F. Brush High School, earned my Bachelors of Science in Education at Cleveland State, and received my Masters Degree through Ursuline College. I've been in Catholic education for thirty-one years, nineteen as a teacher, and the last twelve years as an administrator. My wife, Shelley, is also a Catholic School principal at St. Joan of Arc in Chagrin Falls. We met here at St. Gregory as teachers and have been married now almost ten years. As you can see, St. Gregory's has always been a part of me, and I am eager to be a part of the fine tradition as we become the Sacred Heart of Jesus Academy.

Hope to see many of you at the Festival, on orientation day, or at curriculum night.

God Bless You,
Mr. William DiBacco

Although we're in the middle of summer, it's not too soon to be thinking about your child's religious education this Fall.

Once again this year, the Parish School of Religion is in need of several classroom aides. If you feel called to help teach the Faith to the children of the parish, please contact PSR Principal, Tom Kelly, for more information at 216-382-3614.
