FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK ...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I'd like to thank everyone who came to the Solemn High Mass this past Saturday and for everyone who helped to prepare for it.

I'd also like to thank you for your patience during the Sunday Masses last weekend. I know that parking is difficult during the Festival, so I appreciate your understanding.

Please allow me to take a moment to thank everyone who helped to make this year's Festival so wonderful. A special thanks to:

- Eileen Gerome, Kris Smith, Bob Mapel and Dan LoPresti for their round-the-clock oversight before, during, and after the Festival.
- To various captains and volunteers who worked so hard in the excessive heat to make our celebration a success.
- Brad and Laura Gambrell who ran the kitchen.
- Dan Debick, Denise Payton, Bill Schmenk, Matt Wenzel, John Mohorcic and the rest of the maintenance crew who set up, maintained and tore down our midway.
- Each and every one of you who came and supported the Festival this year. Not only did you get to enjoy delicious food but you had the opportunity to catch up with friends that you may not have seen in awhile.
- Our neighbors for their support, patience and understanding during this important time for our parish each year. Your kindness is deeply appreciated.

Now, let me take this opportunity to congratulate our winners as well:

- Mollyann Piunno, from Chesterland, won the $15,000 grand prize.
- John Olivo, from Chesterland, won the $10,000.

...from the voices of the children

The children have shared these "Good Deeds for God." They are written exactly as the children presented them.

- Sharing my festival prizes with my little sister.
- I helped dad at the home depot.
- Playing with my siblings when their game was boring.

Thank you, children, for sharing these with us.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION ...

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

People have lots of prayers that they would like answered. Whether it is petitions written into the Book of Intercessions at Church, requests made of a priest or a friend, entreaties offered to God before bed, or appeals made in the midst of a crisis, we are always looking for an answer. Sometimes we pray knowing what we want, like a child sitting on Santa's lap with a list of Christmas toys. And many times we pray with the expectation that God will see things our way and give us what we ask for.

In this week's Gospel, Jesus teaches his disciples about prayer. Luke's version of the Lord's Prayer is a little different from Matthew's, but it is essentially the same. In Jesus' methodology, prayer starts with praising God (hallowed be your name) and then asks God to do what God wants (your kingdom come). Only then does prayer move on to posing our requests for God's consideration (give us each day our daily bread). And finally we ask for God's help (forgive us our sins). The Lord's Prayer became so much a part of Christian praying that the Fathers of the Church (early Christian writers like St. Augustine, St. Gregory, and St. Leo the Great) recommended that if a person couldn't remember any other prayer (like a psalm) he or she should just pray the Lord's Prayer instead.

The method of prayer that Jesus lays out for his disciples includes one final aspect-one that we like to forget. Luke's version puts it this way, "for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us." More commonly we say, "as we forgive those who trespass against us." Are we ready to have God act that way toward us? Do we really want God to treat us the way we treat others? That is the challenge, if we continue to pray the Lord's Prayer day after day.

FAMILY PERSPECTIVE ...

"Jesus was praying." What a powerful example for us! He knew this was the way to stay connected to God the Father and handle all the demands being placed on Him. Jesus assures us if we put God first we will receive and find whatever we need from His infinite goodness and wisdom. But, we must make the time to stop, listen and seek God first in prayer. Make prayer a daily part of your family routine.
