FROM THE PASTOR ...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We welcome home Brother Daniel Bowen who will be with us this next week. Brother looks forward to seeing you around the parish. Please be sure to greet him when you see him. Welcome Home Brother!

As we say hello to Brother, we say goodbye to our college kids who will be heading off to school in the near future:

Dear friends, please stay near to your Catholic Faith when you are away at school. Find the nearest Catholic parish or Newman Center and be faithful to Sunday Mass and Confession. Get to know the local priest. You will find this to be a great strength for you when you are away from home. You might also make some new Catholic friends who will be a good support.

Always remember, God loves you!

May God's blessings be yours this week

"LIVING WITH BENEDICT" WEEKEND IS AUGUST 15-17

Reservations are now being taken for the next "living with Benedict" monastic experience retreat that will be held at the Abbey over the weekend of August 15 to 17. The retreat will begin with vespers at 5:15 p.m. on Friday evening for the feast of the Assumption.

If any participants have need to attend Mass for the Holy Day, a Mass will be celebrated at the same time in another chapel (notify Fr. Finbar beforehand). Guestrooms are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Participants will join the monks for the Liturgy of the Hours, daily Mass, and community meals. Special conferences will be scheduled, and a Holy Hour with Eucharistic adoration will conclude Friday's activities.

On Saturday, retreatants will take a break to experience some of the typical work performed by monks in formation. Prayer experiences will include a Living Rosary and time spent in Lectio Divina (Spiritual Reading). A video on Benedictine life will be part of a roundtable discussion on questions about monastic life Saturday evening concluding with Compline (night prayer).

After Sunday morning prayer (Lauds), Mass, and breakfast, the weekend will officially end with a special closing conference before lunch. Retreatants are also invited to remain at the monastery Sunday afternoon if they are interested in visiting the annual Feast of the Assumption street festival in nearby Little Italy either during the afternoon or with some of the monks Sunday evening for the closing procession and fireworks.

Please contact Fr. Finbar at 216.721.5300, 3st. 273, or online at finbar@cbhs.edu.
