SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Follow Me

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we prepare to celebrate Labor Day, I would like to leave you with a few thoughts from Pope Saint John Paul II, concerning labor. He underlines the Church's conviction that "work is a fundamental dimension of man's existence on earth." This conviction is found in the first pages of Genesis: "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it."

"Man's dominion over the earth is achieved in and by means of work. ... The proper subject of work continues to be man," and the finality of work "is always man himself." It is a question of the objective and subjective meaning of work: although both are important, the second takes precedence; "there is no doubt that human work has an ethical value of its own, which clearly and directly remains linked to the fact that the one who carries it out is a person, a conscious and free subject, that is to say a subject that decides about himself."

Although technology fosters an increase in the things produced by work, sometimes it "can cease to be man's ally and become almost his enemy, as when the mechanization of work 'supplants' him, taking away all personal satisfaction and the incentive to creativity and responsibility, when it deprives many workers of their previous employment, or when, through exalting the machine, it reduces man to the status of its slave."

The Holy Father recalls that "in order to achieve social justice in the various parts of the world, in the various countries, and in the relationships between them, there is a need for ever new movements of solidarity of the workers and with the workers."

"Work is a good thing for man - a good thing for his humanity - because through work man not only transforms nature, adapting it to his own needs, but he also achieves fulfillment as a human being and indeed, in a sense, becomes 'more a human being'."

"Work is a good thing for man - a good thing for his humanity - because through work man not only transforms nature, adapting it to his own needs, but he also achieves fulfillment as a human being and indeed, in a sense, becomes 'more a human being'."

May God's Blessings be yours this week.

LABOR DAY

Please join us for Mass at 9 a.m. tomorrow morning, Monday, September 1. While some will gather to thank God for His gift of work and all that work provides, others may come requesting an opportunity to enter or re-enter the workplace; and still others may come rejoicing in their retirement earned through many years of labor in and out of the home. Whatever the purpose, you can be assured that God will hear you.

Following the Mass, there will be a social with coffee and goodies. Please plan to come.

*May the gracious care of the Lord our God
be ours;
Prosper the work of our hands for us!
Prosper the work
of our hands!*

As the world celebrates work, our staff, too, will enjoy a day away from their work. All activity will resume Tuesday.

Children's "Good Deed for God" this week ...

Students respond to God's goodness with acts of kindness:

~ If you see wrong or misspelled words, please remember these are direct quotes from the children, typed as they wrote (or printed) them. ~

- I was nice to my sisters even though they were making fun of me
- Calling Grandma to check on her.
- Doing everything my mom asked me to do right away.

Thank you, children, for sharing these with us.

Calling All Singers!!

The Sacred Heart of Jesus Melody Choir will resume singing at the 10 o'clock Mass on Sunday, September 7.

Practice is held in Mary's Room at 9:30 a.m. every Sunday. We are always looking for new faces and voices.

If you have any questions, please contact our Director and Organist, Tom Adamowicz, at 216.262.3133, or you may see him after any Sunday Mass.

LET US PRAY...

...for the faithful departed, especially

Beatrice Herasuta, sister of Florence Federico

Christine Vitale, wife of Ronald

May God grant them eternal rest.

...for more young men and women to answer the call to serve the Church as priests, brothers or sisters.

We join the Marian Movement of Priests in praying for All Priests, Living and Deceased, who serve or have served our Diocesan parishes and institutions. We pray, too, for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

PSR NEWS ...

The first class and Open House for this academic year is next Sunday, September 7. Remember: All children in grades 1 through 8 who do not attend our Academy MUST BE registered in the PSR Program. Parents, please be attentive to your responsibility to educate your children in the Catholic religion. You may call Deacon Dave Chordas (216.382.7601) with questions or to register.

Any students who expect to be confirmed in Grade 8 MUST attend 2 years of classes prior to the reception of the Sacrament.

Anyone wishing to volunteer in the classroom during PSR classes on Sundays from 10 to 11:15 a.m. (September through April) should contact Deacon Dave Chordas (216.382.7601).

ACADEMY NEWS

Mr. William DiBacco, Principal

Our first week of school went extremely well. We welcomed new Faculty this year: in Grade 3, Mrs. Donna Zgrabik, and in Grade 6, Mrs. Lore Castrigano. Both of these teachers have a wealth of experience teaching in Catholic institutions. We also welcomed 12 new students to the Academy.

Everyone seems to have transitioned into this school year without major issues. Yeah!! Tuesday's heat (nearly 90 degrees) made building very muggy and sticky. Thank God for the cooler temps Wednesday and Thursday. We were off Friday and this coming Monday for Labor Day. Two 4-day weeks is a nice way to start the year.

Our students began their annual Magazine Drive fund raiser. Please consider subscribing, or renewing, and helping our students. Thank you.

Our Band Director, Mr. Mandujano, will be meeting with students interested in playing in the band. Last year we had about 35 students. We look to recruit our 4th graders into the Beginners' Band. New students in any grade level may also join. The band does an awesome job at their two concerts. We are looking forward to another outstanding year. A meeting for parents of new and prospective band members has been scheduled for Tuesday, September 9, at 7 p.m.

The first Mass for Academy staff and students for this school year will be on Friday, September 5, at 8:45 a.m. Please feel free to join us for the Liturgy.

"May the Lord bless us in our vision, for this is the inspiration to fire our hopes and reflections, and our belief in the future."

In Faith Education,
William DiBacco

ROSARY NIGHT FOR THE KNIGHTS ...

Men of the Sacred Heart of Jesus Council Knights of Columbus invite you to join them in reciting the Rosary the first Tuesday of every month in the Church at 7 o'clock.

This monthly devotion will begin on this Tuesday, September 2.

Everyone is welcome!!
